

A Long Dark Journey

The dark haunts my nights
But you share my dreams

You've al-ways been my guiding light
A light that's gone - out of me

I'm lost - on a long dark journey now
Way out - far beyond the sea

A dim glow of a far off distant world
Keeps calling out your name to me

No footsteps through time
Nor prayers will release

I travel down a different road
The end to which I cannot see

I'm lost - on a long dark journey now
Way out - far beyond the sea

Far off dreams of a blue distant world
The only comfort left to me
