

Dark Late at Night

It was dark late at night when the drums started beating
Fear for your life for a danger has come
Can I survive or will I die
Now is the time - To Decide
Stand up and fight or race into the jungle and hide
Stand up and fight or fade into the shadows of night

I can hear my heart beating beating beating away
I'm afraid my heart beats beats beats away

Stand up and fight or race into the jungle and hide
Stand up and fight or fade into the shadows of night
How will I survive Should I Turn and Fly
What am I supposed to do
