

No One Knows

No One Knows

If The Sun Will Come Out For The Day

Or Will Our Dreams Dance The Night Away

I Don't Know And No One Really Knows

And No One No One No One — No One Knows

When Will The Songbird Sing Its Special Tune

If Imagination Soars Beyond The Moon

To Tell The Truth No One Really Knows

A Little Laughter And Just A Little Smile Is All You Need To Make A Bit Of Magic

And If A Smile Shines Across Your Face All Can See The One Down Inside You

And Everyday Put One More Song In Your Heart Keep It There To Remind You

That The Sun Will Always Follow Your Heart

And That Is The Meaning of Life To Me

It's The Miracle That I See

Make A World For You And Me And Show It Was All Meant To Be
